FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 8, 2021, Crossfield, Alta. – Deputy Mayor Glenn Price tendered his resignation from Crossfield Town council March 3, citing personal medical reasons.

At a special meeting of Town council March 7, Price’s resignation was regretfully accepted by the remainder of council. The resignation is effective immediately.

Council would like to thank Deputy Mayor Price for his service to the community. Crossfield has greatly benefited from his time on council.

A motion will be made at the next council meeting – March 16 – to add this council seat vacancy to the by-election already announced for May 10, 2021. Information regarding this by-election can be found on the Town’s website: www.crossfieldalberta.com
