Welcome.

Crossfield is a small town in the Calgary Metropolitan Region with vibrant heritage, a strong industrial base and outstanding transportation infrastructure. Crossfield is poised for growth, 30 minutes north of Calgary along Highway 2a and the Canadian Pacific Railway, and within sight of the CANAMEX/North-South Trade Corridor, on Highway 2.

Industry in Crossfield enjoys access to international markets, a metropolitan workforce, land at an affordable price and a business tax-free municipal environment, while new residents find work opportunities and housing options in a community that offers a full range of amenities in a small town atmosphere.

Within 30 minutes to 1.5 million people, shovel-ready land, no business tax, one of the lowest utility rates around and access to unbeatable transportation options, Crossfield is the place to start a business.

The town of Crossfield is in close proximity to both Calgary and Airdrie, providing easy access to all the big city amenities while maintaining quiet country living at its best.

Crossfield is eager to do business and has a proven record of sustained expansion. Whatever your industry, it is an excellent place to set up operations.

LOCATION LOCATION LOCATION

Top-notch transportation access

Crossfield offers a strategic location on the doorstep of Highway 2 – one of Canada’s busiest travel corridors and part of the CANAMEX trade corridor, North America’s high priority corridor under the national highway systems designation act. The corridor links Alaska through Canada to Mexico, improving the north/south flow of goods. Crossfield is in the Calgary region and a 25 minute drive from the Calgary International airport. For market-seeking industries, Crossfield offers an unbeatable Calgary area location from which to move products around the province via highway, rail or air.
