Understanding the position

Do you understand the position?

As a member of Council, you will have the opportunity to significantly influence the future of your community. All decisions must be made at meetings, held in public, at which a quorum is present.

As an individual member of Council, you will not have the power to commit your municipality to any expenditure or to direct the activities of municipal employees. Any promise you make as part of your election campaign that involves municipal expenditures or the activities of employees can only be carried out if a majority of Council votes in favor of the matter at a meeting.

Roles and Responsibilities

The role of Council is to work together to set the overall direction of the municipality through their position as a policy maker. The policies that Council sets are the guidelines for administration to follow as they perform the day-to-day operations of the town.

As outlined in the Municipal Government Act:

Mayor (Chief elected official)

A chief elected official, in addition to performing the duties of a councillor, must

- a) preside when in attendance at a council meeting unless a bylaw provides that another councillor or other person is to preside, and
- b) perform any other duty imposed on a chief elected official by this or any other enactment or bylaw.

(2) The chief elected official is a member of all council committees and all bodies to which council has the right to appoint members under this Act, unless the council provides otherwise.

(3) Despite subsection (2), the chief elected official may be a member of a board, commission, subdivision authority or development authority established under Part 17 only if the chief elected official is appointed in the chief elected official's personal name.

Councillors and the Chief Elected Official have the following duties:

- a) to consider the welfare and interests of the municipality as a whole and to bring to council's attention anything that would promote the welfare or interests of the municipality;

- a.1) to promote an integrated and strategic approach to intermunicipal land use planning and service delivery with neighbouring municipalities;
- b) to participate generally in developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality;
- c) to participate in council meetings and council committee meetings and meetings of other bodies to which they are appointed by the council;
- d) to obtain information about the operation or administration of the municipality from the chief administrative officer or a person designated by the chief administrative officer;
- e) to keep in confidence matters discussed in private at a council or council committee meeting until discussed at a meeting held in public;
- e.1) to adhere to the code of conduct established by the council under section 146.1(1);
- f) to perform any other duty or function imposed on councillors by this or any other enactment or by the council.

Councillors

Councillors have the following duties:

- a) to consider the welfare and interests of the municipality as a whole and to bring to council's attention anything that would promote the welfare or interests of the municipality;
- a.1) to promote an integrated and strategic approach to intermunicipal land use planning and service delivery with neighbouring municipalities;
- b) to participate generally in developing and evaluating the policies and programs of the municipality;
- c) to participate in council meetings and council committee meetings and meetings of other bodies to which they are appointed by the council;
- d) to obtain information about the operation or administration of the municipality from the chief administrative officer or a person designated by the chief administrative officer;
- e) to keep in confidence matters discussed in private at a council or council committee meeting until discussed at a meeting held in public;
- e.1) to adhere to the code of conduct established by the council under section 146.1(1);

- f) to perform any other duty or function imposed on councillors by this or any other enactment or by the council.

Chief Administrative Officer

The Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) is the administrative head of the municipality. The CAO's responsibilities include ensuring that the municipality's policies and programs are implemented, advising and informing Council on the operation of the municipality, performing other duties as assigned by Council, and ensuring appropriate staffing is in place.

What Other Information Should You Have?

The best way to find out what the job is all about is to spend some time reading Council agendas and minutes (agendas and minutes are posted on the town's webpage).

You can also talk to current members of Council and attend Council meetings as well. Attending Council meetings is a great opportunity for you to see the Municipal Council in action.

Time Commitment

Becoming a member of Council is a challenging and rewarding experience. As an elected official, you will have the opportunity to influence the future of your community. You will be expected to represent our community and act on its behalf.

As a member of Council, there will be demands on your time, energy and commitment. In addition to regular meetings, you will be required to attend special meetings, committee and board meetings and various public meetings and functions.

If elected as a member of Council, you will be expected to serve a four (4) year term. Your term of office begins at the first meeting of the Council following the general election.

During the four-year term, you will be expected to attend:

- Regular meetings of Council (typically held on the first and third Tuesday commencing at 6:00 PM.) You will be required to prepare for these meetings by reviewing an agenda and any attachments that will be provided to you prior to the meeting in order to make informed decisions.
- Special meetings of Council that may be called from time to time to deal with time sensitive matters.
- Meetings of other boards, commissions, and agencies to which you are appointed as the Towns' representative.
- Conferences, conventions, seminars, and workshops.
- Social and other events promoting the town
- Strategic planning sessions and budget discussion sessions

The Deputy Mayor position is appointed by council at the October organizational meeting held each October. The Deputy Mayor performs the duties of the Mayor in his/her absence.
